Commentary on Learning with Dr. Wales

The ways I believe I have benefited from Dr. Wales' art class is that he has given me a lot of freedom in what I choose to accomplish in his classes. He gives me a lot of choices in deciding what projects to work on and I'm very thankful for that. He lets me work on my own ideas with the original characters I have created. He also gives me tips on how I can better my artwork and helped me to advance from fanart into more original pieces with my own characters/world-building.

Artist Statement

My piece is a portrayal of my original characters, Luther (the demon) and Layla (the angel). They are from two opposing kingdoms, Heaven and Hell, and they meet by chance on Earth when Luther crosses a portal in the kingdom. They've been a huge passion project of mine since the summer of 2020, and I plan to make a small web-comic revolving around them.
