Robb Bomboy   1998 B.S.A.E

Biography

Robb Bomboy is a media arts teacher from Boiling Springs, PA. He is the recipient of the 2023 Pennsylvania Art Education Association Outstanding Secondary Art Educator Award. He is the Chair of the Media Arts Coalition of Educators. He the Pennsylvania representative and a framing committee member of the National Coalition of Arts Standards Media Arts Committee. He was a pilot team member for the Media Arts Model Cornerstone Assessments. He provided the NCCAS with student examples for benchmarking. Robb has written Model Cornerstone Assessments in Media Arts. He has written online professional development courses in Media Arts for the State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education. He is the owner of Little DaVinci Art Classes, an after school art program serving schools in Central Pennsylvania.

He earned his BSAE at Mansfield University and his MA in Interdisciplinary Humanities at Penn State University. He is adjunct faculty at Messiah College where he teaches digital media. He teaches Film, Digital Modeling, Television Production, and Animation at Cumberland Valley High School in Mechanicsburg, PA. He has taught Art K-12. Bomboy was an online course developer and adjunct instructor of Humanities both in person and online at Harrisburg Area Community College in Harrisburg, PA.

Robb serves as Art and Media Technology Interest Group Chair on the PAEA Board of Directors. He has previously served as Regional Co-Representative for the Pennsylvania Art Education Association and as the the Pennsylvania Youth Art Month Chairman. He was the 2015 and 2018 State Conference Co-Chair.

Robb's artwork is exhibited at Metropolis Collective in Mechanicsburg, PA. He creates wood sculpture, photography, film, and 3D printed sculpture.

https://robbbomboy.myportfolio.com/https://mediaartscoalitionofeducators.wordpress.com/https://www.mediaartsedu.org/https://paeablog.org/
https://www.nationalartsstandards.org/
https://www.seadae.org/
https://www.messiah.edu/
https://littledavinci19.wixsite.com/home