

Kyle Kirsch, Grasshopper

---

Palisades High School. Kintnersville, PA.

Artist Statement

I was inspired to do this project by the painting “Portrait of a Woman” because I wanted to do something different than everyone else. It was a bit challenging to turn the flat shapes into textures, so I tried to play up the background and other surfaces with textures. It took a long time but, spending so much time turning this painting into a sculpture really gave me a better appreciation for Picasso and his artwork.