

July 2016, Dr. Jannis V. Floyd and Emeritus Professor J. Rick Lucero in front of Hemmingway House, Cuba

Dr. Jannis Floyd, Associate Professor and Chairperson of the Education and Special Education Department and Professor J. Rick Lucero, Associate Professor Emeriti of the Education and Special Education Department presented at the Building Bridges Toward an Inclusive Society Conference in Havana, Cuba on Wednesday July 28, 2016. The conference, the first American sponsored education conference in Cuba, focused on inclusive education practices. Their session entitled Inclusion of Special Education Content Knowledge and Skills into Elementary and Secondary Teacher Preparation programs shared MU's experience at developing, creating and teaching mandated Pennsylvania Knowledge and skills related to special education to all teacher education candidates.

The Conference was from July 23-28th and was developed by Mark Francis, CEO of FYI-CSY, LLC. The keynote speaker was Humberto Javier Rodriguez Hernandez of the University of Monterrey, Mexico.