Employee of the Year Award
Nomination Form

Nominated Employee: _______________________________________

How does this employee exemplify Mansfield University’s principles and values of Character, Scholarship, Culture & Service?

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

Give an example of how this employee demonstrates leadership at Mansfield University.

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

Give examples of how this employee’s work demonstrates support of Mansfield University’s Strategic Goals: Student Success, Resource Management, and Strategic Engagement.

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

When considering your nomination, please reflect on the past academic year and give specific examples to support your recommendation.

Please return this form to the Human Resources Office by March 6, 2015.

Nominated by: _______________________________________________________
