

DO YOU NEED HELP?

Title IX covers all forms of sexual misconduct and violence, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, exploitation, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Mansfield University is committed to ensuring that all reports of sexual misconduct and violence are promptly addressed to determine what occurred, take interim steps to protect the individual, provide a timely response to end any violence and prevent its recurrence, and eliminate the effects of any discrimination. Reports of sexual misconduct and violence should be made to the Title IX Coordinator who is charged with overseeing the investigation and resolution of reports of sexual misconduct and violence.
