

Mansfield University

Sexual Assault Information & Resources

Reaching out to others and seeking support can be a huge help in the recovery process.
Where can I go to learn more?

Mansfield University Counseling Center

570-662-4695/4436

www.mansfield.edu/counseling-center/

The Mansfield University Counseling Center offers individual, couples, and family counseling to students. A counselor is on-call for crisis situations after hours during the regular fall and spring academic year. All services are strictly confidential.

Mansfield University Title IX Coordinator, JoEllen Lindner

570-662-4342

www.mansfield.edu/title-ix/

Title IX covers all forms of sexual violence, including but not limited to sexual harassment, sexual assault or exploitation, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Mansfield University is committed to ensuring that all reports of sexual violence are promptly addressed to determine what occurred, take interim steps to protect the individual, provide a timely response to end any violence and prevent its recurrence, and eliminate the effects of any discrimination. Reports of sexual violence should be made to the Title IX Coordinator who is charged with overseeing the investigation and resolution of reports of sexual violence.

Mansfield University Chief Conduct Officer, Bill Kluge

570-662-4936

<https://www.mansfield.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct.cfm>

Reports of sexual misconduct may be made to the Chief Conduct Officer when the parties are students of the university. The Chief Conduct Officer is required to report all instances of sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Mansfield University Police Services & Safety

570-662-4900

www.mansfield.edu/police/

Parties of alleged sexual misconduct who would like to press criminal charges should contact the Campus Police Services department. Reports made to Campus Police will be reported to the Title IX Coordinator.

Mansfield University Women's Center

570-662-4946

www.mansfield.edu/womens-center/

The Women's Center provides a resource for research, education and involvement towards gender justice and women's issues, and provides a safe and supportive space for all students. The Women's Center provides support to women and men who may have experienced date rape, coerced sex, acquaintance rape, sexual harassment, or relationship violence.

Mansfield University Campus Clinic (students only)

570-662-4350

<https://www.mansfield.edu/residence-life/campus-clinic.cfm>

125 Clinton Street, Spruce Hall, Ground Floor; Hours: Monday-Friday 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM

State Employee Assistance Program (employees only)

800-692-7459

www.liveandworkwell.com

SEAP provides free and confidential counseling services to employees and their families for a wide range of issues. Employees may receive three free counseling sessions for each issue per calendar year.

HAVEN of Tioga County570-724-3549www.havenoftiogacounty.org/

HAVEN of Tioga County is a private non-profit organization committed to helping all individuals affected by domestic and sexual violence. HAVEN provides services to all men, women and children, regardless of age, sex, class, ethnic background, or sexual orientation. All services are free and confidential.

Tioga County Human Services Agency: Bridge House570-724-5766<https://tiogapartnership.org/resource/bridge-housing/>

The goal of the Bridge Housing program is to assist the homeless and victims of domestic violence to find and retain permanent housing through providing temporary housing and supportive services, such as case management, housing counseling, training and life skills education to those living in Bridge Housing.

Abuse and Rape Crisis Center of Bradford County570-265-5333<https://www.arccbc.org/>

The Abuse and Rape Crisis Center serves men, women and children throughout Bradford County who are victims of domestic and sexual violence. Services include a crisis hotline, counseling for victims of current or past abuse and their significant others, medical and legal advocacy and accompaniment, emergency shelter, support groups, prevention education and community awareness programs. All services are free and confidential.

A Way Out: Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Services of Potter County814-274-0368<https://www.myawayout.org/a-way-out-services>

A Way Out provides services to survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault. Services to individuals and their family members are strictly confidential and free of charge.

Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence800-932-4632www.pcadv.org

The mission of the PCADV is to eliminate personal and institutional violence against women through programs providing support and safety to battered women, direct services, public information and education, systems advocacy and social change activities.

Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape717-728-9740www.pcar.org

PCAR advocates for the rights and needs of sexual assault victims and works to end sexual violence. PCAR partners with a network of rape crisis programs to bring help, hope and healing around issues of sexual violence to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

National Sexual Violence Resource Center877-739-3895www.nsvrc.org

The NSVRC provides a variety of resources to assist in preventing and responding to sexual violence.

Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network800-656-4673www.rainn.org

RAINN operates the National Sexual Assault Hotline (800-656-HOPE and online.rainn.org) in partnership with more than 1,100 local rape crisis centers across the country. RAINN also carries out programs to prevent sexual violence, help victims, and ensure that rapists are brought to justice.

An individual who files a complaint alleging sexual misconduct has the option of filing a complaint with a court of external public agency responsible for enforcing the laws against sexual misconduct such as:

Equal Employment Opportunity Commissions (EEOC)

800-669-4000

Office for Civil Rights (OCR), U.S. Department of Education

800-421-3481

Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (PHRC)

Harrisburg Office

717-787-9780

Philadelphia Office

215-560-2496

Pittsburgh Office

412-565-5395