XI. Public Comments

- A. Robert Conrad – I would like to give a suggestion. You put down the foam party which isn't one of the greatest suggestions. I see that you also didn't put the mural up. The flashlight has been tabled for the last three years. One thing I brought up two weeks ago, is that you are not able to read the minutes. Now that I have read them it says the budget was cut because the Flashlight receives revenue from ads. What I love about public comments is that you are not able to respond.
